

Huazhong (Chengdu) Certified in Acceptance of Grade 3 Safety Standards

Huazhong (Chengdu) Auto Parts Co., Ltd. was found in 2009 and is affiliated to Huazhong Group. It mainly deals with production of A/B/C pillars for Sagitar of FAW-Volkswagen and Volvo XC60/S60L, the seat pillar of seat, backboard and decorative plate. It is large-scale auto parts company involving R&D, production and sales.

Safety production is top priority of an enterprise. From the establishment and promotion of grade 3 safety production standards, Huazhong (Chengdu) started the work related to fulfilling the duty of an enterprise qualified for the grade 3 safety production standards and comprehensively promoted the establishment of standardization of enterprise management, established the leadership for the construction of safe production standards with General Manager as the team leader and stipulated the plan for promoting the construction of safe production standards. The Company refined various mechanisms related to safety production and environment protection including Safe Production Responsibility, Safe Operation Rules and Team Level Safety Inspection Regulations. Therefore, there will be rules and regulations to be followed in all work related to safe production, and adverse factors due to human intervention and carelessness, thus realizing a more systematic safety management. In order to help our staff obtains knowledge of the details of safe production standards, the Company stipulated rules about safe production responsibility of staff and on-site operation standards. Meanwhile, it carries out events related to promotion of safety and environment protection on an irregular basis in order to create a safe and environment-friendly atmosphere of advertisement and enhance the overall awareness of safety and environment protection of all staff.

With joint efforts of staff, Huazhong (Chengdu) was approved in acceptance of grade 3 safety standards and was recognized by Municipal Safety Supervision Bureau, which facilitates improving safe production and enhancing managerial expertise and enriching the cultural meaning in safe production. We believe that Huazhong (Chengdu) will keep exploring new thoughts and measures about safe management to realize a more standard and systematic work in safety production.